

Easton Main Street Call for Door Poems

Local writers: We seek short, original poems to adorn the back doors of Downtown Easton properties.

Three local building owners have agreed to offer their doors as the sites for publication of short original poems that follow these guidelines:

- Maximum length = 32 words of 8 lines or fewer
- No minimum length
- Poems submitted must be original work and legible
- Free verse and formal poems both welcome
- No more than 2 poems submitted by any one author
- Poems need not be in English only
- Provide clear contact information for the author, preferably email

Deadline for all submissions: Monday, April 30, 2018, postmark OR Midnight, Monday, April 30, 2018, email

- Authors of the 3 poems chosen will receive an honorarium of $100.
- Each poem will be installed by volunteers using stencils and paint, working under guidance from the Easton Main Street Design committee.
- Following installation of the poems, all rights revert to their authors.

We encourage interested poets to view these images of the 3 door poem sites:
